

What Can You Do? Take Action! WHO & UN Lead Paint Alliance newsletter, June 2020

The Lead Paint Alliance is seeking good quality photographs connected to the elimination of lead paint for use in its publications, and readers are invited to submit suitable photographs to noleadinpaint@who.int and [A graphic with a blue background and white text. The text reads 'CALL FOR PHOTOGRAPHS' in large, bold, black letters. Below it, 'ELIMINATION OF LEAD PAINT' is written in large, bold, black letters. At the bottom, in smaller white text, it says 'FOR USE IN LEAD PAINT ALLIANCE PUBLICAITON'.](mailto:lead-<div data-bbox=)

cadmiumchemicals@un.org. If you are planning an event and will be taking photographs showing peoples' faces, please note the need to obtain those peoples' consent for their likeness to be published. This needs to be done at the time the picture is taken so must be planned for.

The general requirements for providing photographs are as follows:

- The copyright owner must give permission to WHO and UNEP to use the picture
- Any person who is depicted in a photograph and who is recognisable must give informed consent to the use of their image in the form of a signed declaration of consent.
- The depiction of children is especially sensitive and written consent for use of a child's image must be given by the parent or legal guardian.
- No payment will be provided for photographs but the photographer will be acknowledged in the publication in which the picture is used.

For further information together with template consent forms please send an email to noleadinpaint@who.int.
